

I get many different types of tele-marketing calls. I want NONE. If my phone number is added to a government mandated universal no-call list, then it must be honored. Further, there must be a standard way of identifying tele-marketers. Such identifying information call be a call code or CALLER-ID. Tele-marketers should be required to send their caller id so customers can ignore the call at their choice.

Ken Kashmarek
Eldridge Iowa